

Failed in Health

"My mother died six years ago," writes Miss Ruth Ward, of Jerseyville, Ill., "and left me to care for six children. I had never been strong; and this, with the shock of her death, was too much for me.

"I failed in health. I was tired all the time and did not want to go anywhere, nor care for company. I had the headache all the time and such bearing-down pains.

"A very dear friend advised me to take Cardui, as it had done her so much good, so I commenced to use it and now I am in good health."

Take CARDUI

Summer Prices Anthracite Coal.

Our 1910 summer prices on Anthracite coal will become effective Monday, May 2nd, 1910.

There has never been a time in the history of our business when we felt that we were able to give better values in Anthracite coal than we can this season, as we have completed our arrangements to secure our entire supply from two or three of the very best collieries in the Anthracite region, and will have a coal which is uniform in quality, well prepared, and coal that will give far better results than the average.

It is our desire to give our trade the best values that can be had, and we earnestly solicit the orders of our friends and customers.

Bell Telephone 19 & 57 Home Telephone 152 & 57 Order Office, No. 529 King street.

The Overland factory is at this time 3,000 cars behind on orders. It is not hot air and it is not advertising bluff when we say that the demand for the Overland is growing like a flood. These are actual facts and there is a reason. The very fact that Overlands are hard to get proves their value all the more, and they are well worth waiting for. Give us the "wink" and we will try to get one for you

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 5, 1910

A Disappointing Witness. Deacon Stephen Potter, one of the pioneers of Utica, N. Y., was a man of great eccentricity, but high moral character. "The deacon will speak the truth and shame the devil," was often said of him.

On one occasion a friend was engaged to a lawsuit in regard to some land a few miles from Utica. He held the land at a high price. During the trial he called Deacon Potter as a witness to prove how valuable the land was. The deacon was sworn and asked if he knew the land.

"Yes," he replied, "I know every foot of it."

"What do you think it worth, Mr. Potter?" was the next question.

The old man paused a moment and then said slowly, "If I had as many dollars—as my yoke of oxen—could draw on a sled—on glaze ice—I row—I would not give a dollar an acre for it!"—Youth's Companion.

Flag Proportions.
In the United States flag the width of a stripe is invariably half the length in inches of the flag's longest measurement. For example, in a flag ten feet long the stripes should be five inches wide. Accordingly the flag would have a width of five feet five inches, or thirteen times five inches. The field should be of navy blue button measuring seven stripes deep and extending two-fifths across the length of the flag. There should be forty-six stars on the field, arranged in six rows, beginning with eight, the two middle rows having eight and the last row eight and the other rows seven. The size of the star at its widest measurement should be such that one-half of its own width will separate it from the next star. Flags may be made in all sizes, but the above proportions should be preserved.—Philadelphia Press.

Cat Exchange in Paris.
Paris has a cat exchange, a "bourse aux chats." This establishment is situated in a big chamber at the rear of a winery. Here are legions of cats of all sizes and colors, which are to be seen jumping and heard "miaulant." It is said that the customers are by no means tender hearted old ladies, but for the most part furriers, glove-makers and cooks. A good sleek "matou" realizes from 2 1/2 cents to 20 cents. The skin has a number of usages, and the flesh, according to the story, finds its way into the stewpans of certain restaurants possessing more enterprise than scruple.—Chicago Journal.

Two of a Kind.
Mrs. Boggs—I hate to have a man always complaining about some little thing. Now, my husband is continually harping on the lace curtains. Mrs. Woggs—Yes, and my husband has been kicking on our front door every morning at 8 o'clock for the past twenty years.—Puck.

Kept Him Busy.
"You haven't had time to make any friends? Then you have lived in vain." "Not on your life. I've managed to make some bully enemies."—Cleveland Leader.

A Hard Job.
Willie—Papa, there's a big black bug on the ceiling. Papa (busy reading)—Well, step on it and don't bother me.—Boston Transcript.
